Saint Paul's Magnificat

Ninteen Hundred and Seventy Six

Dear Students,

During this year of the Bicentennial, we find ourselves recalling our past and exploring the beliefs that brought a new nation into existence rather than new colonies. We find that our ancestors, while coming from many different countries, had common dreams and hopes. They dreamed of freedom, of personal dignity for each individual, of opportunities to make tomorrow better than today through the collective efforts of "the people." They firmly believed that the God who created us intended no less.

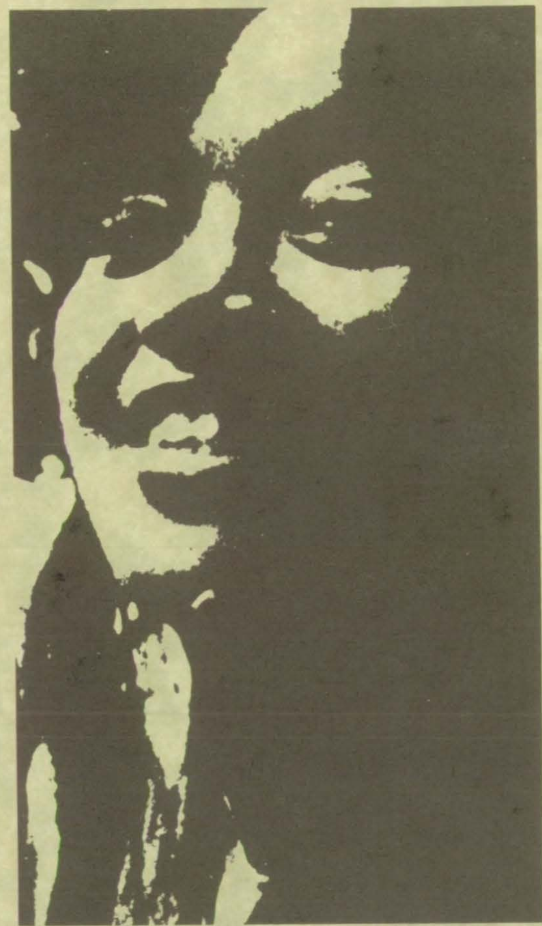

Now, two hundred years later, we find the dream only part reality. Our task is to decide whether or not we believe in the hopes and dreams of our founders. If we do, then we too must do our part in changing dreams into realities. We must do our part in bringing about freedom today, our part in developing a sense of respect for all individuals, our part in a democratic government, our part in making tomorrow better than today.

May we all be people of hopes and dreams.

Senior Retreat

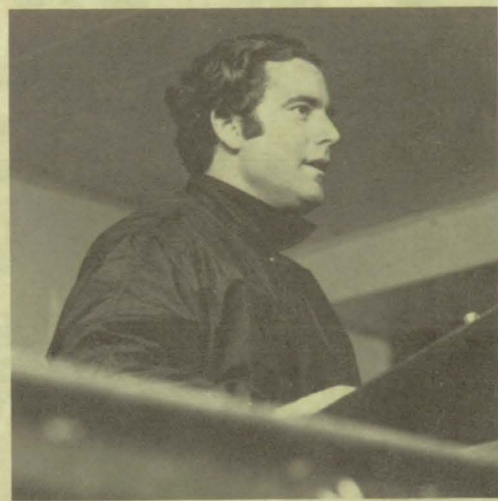

A retreat is an emotional experience - an inscape rather than an escape - as any senior who went on this retreat will tell you. Maria Bruno described it as "a small sample of the kind of love that should be shared."

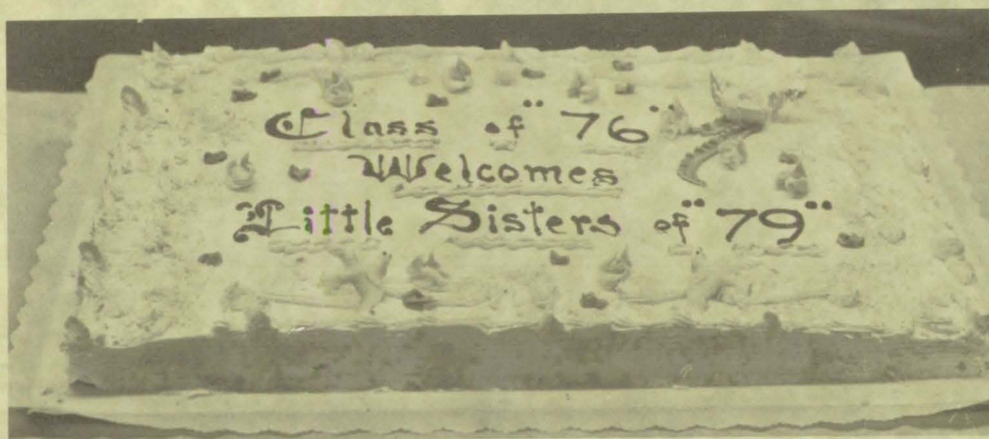

Senior

One of our oldest traditions is the Big Sister/Little Sister luncheon. Every year seniors become possessed by a contagious enthusiasm and freshmen can end up in a most unusual state.

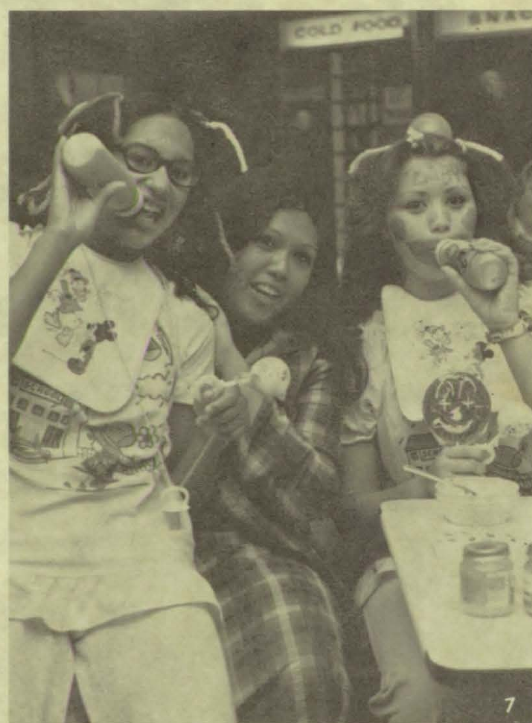

Freshman Luncheon

Picture Hanging

Each year the seniors welcome back the previous year's graduates with refreshments, entertainment, and a song or two. The graduates' picture is hung in our hallowed halls to a round of applause.

Clockwise from top right: Bernie Daly and Peggy O'Grady prance gracefully. The classes of '75 and '76. The picture is hung. The Spirit of '76 is incorporated in (l. to r.) Rose Acquilina, Bernie Daly, Kathy Barry, Peg O'Grady, Elgha Amezcua, Debbie Branch. Rose "Denver" Acquilina.

Candle Lighting

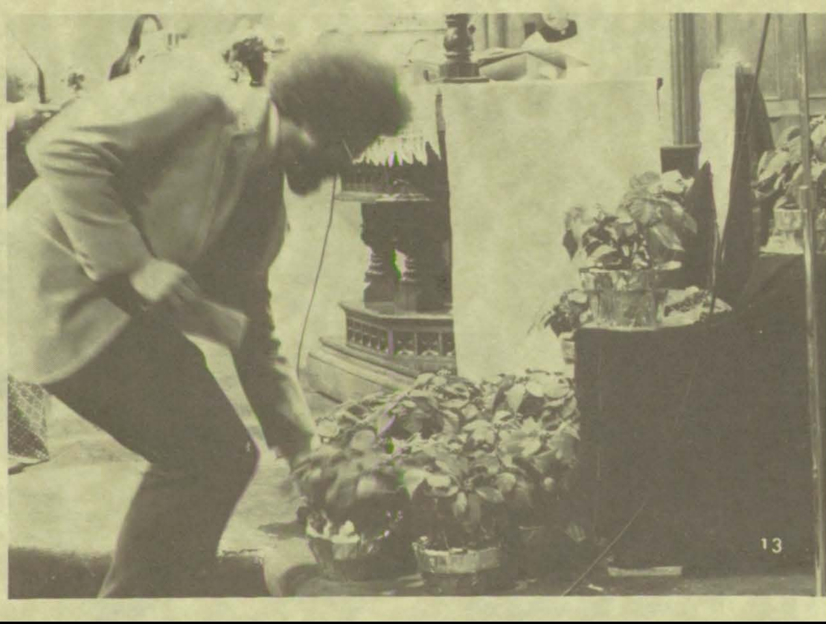

You are like light for the whole world.
A city built on a hill cannot be hid.
Nobody lights a lamp to put it under a bowl; instead he puts it on the lamp-stand, where it gives light for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine before people, so that they will see the good things you do and give praise to your Father in heaven. Matthew 5,14-16

It's Christmas

Bernie "Santa" Morley addresses the students.

Sr. Immcaulee assures Santa Maureen that she was good this year.

The plot may fade from memory, but not the fun.

It looks as though their Kris Kringles were good to them.

The Faculty enjoys the delicious breakfast which was the Student Government's present to them.

PLAYDAY

This was a day when we played,
we laughed,
and were together
building memories
which will last forever.

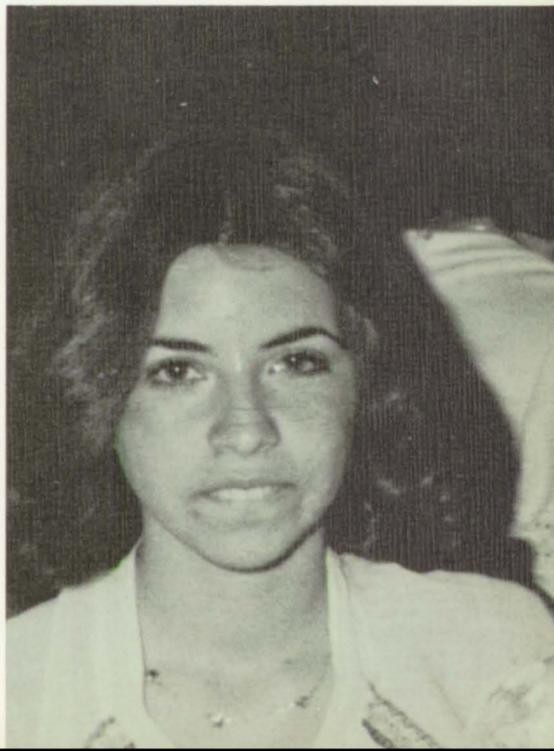

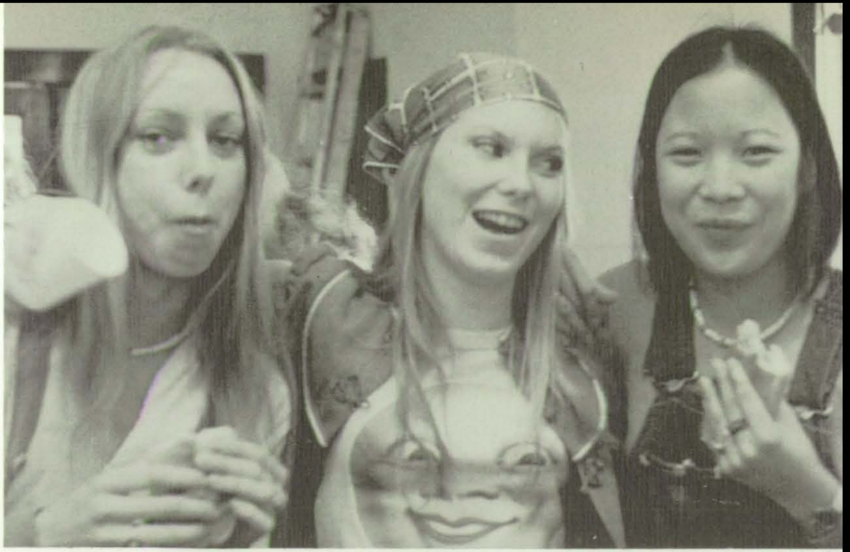

Heidi Linder, Kathy Hart and Sharie Soriano are enjoying the food.

Ann Napolis shows an intense interest at the goings-on.

Raquel Hernandez and Denise Venegas rest.

Ann McKeon takes pictures too. But not this one.

Leticia Solorzano and Anna Perez sell tacos and enchiladas.

Lorraine Johnson readies a junio booth.

nabelle Santos likes the great tdoors.

Ernie Villagomez runs the tic-tac-toe booth.

Mission Day

Mission Day is the final fling. Each division works feverishly to raise enough money to come out on top. The work is part of the fun and it doesn't stop anyone from having a good time.

Loretta Findley and Cammile Urquiaga find a cubby-hole in which to eat lunch.

Margo Marquez and Melinda Marquez paint people.

Estelita Argueta and Arlene Espinosa sit on the stairs.

Loraine Ayala and her date.

Mission Queen Mary McFadden and escort.

Anne Steinberg and Cathy Swarthout wait for the music to start again.

Sharon Domenichini and friend enjoy a laugh or two.

Mission Ball
"Stairway to Heaven"

Maria Bruno and escort dance on the stairway.

Julie Gutierrez and Miriam Mendoza watch the dance with their escorts.

A yearbook can only be produced with the generous help of many people. We would like to thank Mrs. McKenna, Mrs. McMains and her art students, Mrs. Steinberg, Clark Kerns, Kathy Hart, all those who sold ads, and, of course, Jezebel.

To borrow from Geoffrey Chaucer, "if there is anything that displeases (you) I beg you to impute it to (our) want of ability, not to our will, who would very gladly have done better if (we) had the power."

See the enthusiastic, energetic yearbook staff.

See the same staff five hours later.
